4 23 entities identified as in receipt of appropriations for the 4 24 2010=2011 or 2011=2012 fiscal year.

4 25 The temporary appropriations made in the division are equal
4 26 to one-twelfth of the amounts of all line item appropriations,

4 28 appropriations otherwise limited by law, including federal and 4 29 nonstate funds, made by enrolled bills for the 2011=2012 fiscal 4 30 year. The one-twelfth appropriation amounts are required to 5 1 to the governor.

5 2 For all line item appropriations, standing limited
5 3 appropriations, and standing unlimited appropriations otherwise 5 4 limited by law, including appropriations from federal and 5 5 nonstate funds, not included in bills passed by both the senate
5 6 and the house of representatives during the 2011 Regular 5 7 Session, the continuing appropriations made in the division
5 8 are equal to one-twelfth of the amounts of all line item
5 9 appropriations, standing limited appropriations, and standing
5 10 unlimited appropriations otherwise limited by law, including 5 11 federal and nonstate funds, made for the 2010=2011 fiscal year,

5 13 such appropriations, including Acts of the general assembly and 5 14 interdepartmental and intradepartmental transfers.

5 15 For both temporary and continuing appropriations, the 5 16 one-twelfth appropriation amounts temporarily supplant any 5 17 appropriations carried forward from previous fiscal years. For

5 19 amounts also temporarily supplant any duplicative standing
5 20 appropriation for the 2011=2012 fiscal year.

5 21 For both temporary and continuing appropriations, the 5 22 one-twelfth appropriation amounts become an allotment of the 5 23 full year appropriation amounts upon the governor's approval of 5 24 the enrolled bills containing the same line item appropriations
5 25 or limited standing appropriations.

5 26 The division takes effect upon enactment. If the governor
5 27 signs the division after July 1, 2011, the division applies
5 28 retroactively to that date.

5 29 MISCELLANEOUS. This division amends 2011 Iowa Acts, House
5 30 File 645, by increasing the authorized full-time equivalent
